POWER

Is God calling you to minister?

The Urban Theological Institute

The Urban Theological Institute (UTI) of the United Lutheran Seminary is dedicated to providing theological education with a focus on ministry in the Black Church. For over 38 years, students of various traditions have enhanced their education and ministry through UTI. Our programs provide opportunities for Philadelphia's ministers and church leaders to prepare to serve Christ.

Preaching with Power

This year, UTI and ULS celebrate the 37th year of Preaching with Power. Since its inception, it has presented the finest in African American preaching and music. PWP is held annually in March and is hosted both on the ULS Philadelphia campus and in congregations throughout the community. Each of the preaching events are free and all offerings primarily benefit the Rev. Dr. Joseph Q. Jackson Endowed Scholarship Fund. On Sunday morning at Mt. Airy Church of God in Christ, an offering will be taken for the Bishop Ernest C. Morris Scholarship Fund.

The Rev. Dr. Joseph Q. Jackson Endowed Scholarship Fund

The Rev. Dr. Joseph Q. Jackson Endowed Scholarship Fund provides support for students preparing to serve the African American church community. The fund provides scholarships for entering students as well as merit awards given annually to the African American UTI student preparing for ordained ministry with the highest cumulative GPA.

Come and See

If you have a sense God may be calling you to be a minister, to serve as a social justice advocate, Christian educator, chaplain, teacher, or church leader, UTI can provide you with degree and certificate programs both relevant and upbuilding for the African American community.
