CANAAN SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION GENERAL INFORMATION & INSTRUCTIONS

The primary purpose of the Scholarship Ministry is to award financial support to high school graduates who plan to enroll in a post-secondary program. Through providing financial support, the ministry seeks to sustain meaningful relationships through the Canaan/Student experience to strengthen the student's Christian growth. To be eligible, students are required to attend teen church, at least, twice a month. In addition, the following requirements are to be met prior to the submission of the application. If all requirements are not met, the student may be eligible for a partial scholarship, based on the discretion of the Scholarship Ministry.

The application deadline is April 30, 2025. In addition to completing the CANAAN SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION, the following items must be included with your submission:

1. An official transcript, signed, sealed and addressed to:
Canaan Baptist Church
Attention: Scholarship Ministry
5430 Pulaski Avenue
Philadelphia, PA 19144

Please request your transcript in a timely manner, so it will be available when you submit your application.

2. An essay (topic of your choice) or a personal statement that includes an overview of who you are, your goals, and why they are important to you.
3. All applicants must be a member of Canaan. Please provide your CBC envelope number on the scholarship application. In addition, all applicants must participate in or be a member of a youth ministry (signatures from the Ministry Servant Leader required on the application).

Scholarship recipients will be required to attend the Scholarship Service at Canaan Baptist Church on Sunday, June 8, 2025.

Application Submission Checklist
